Dean Jones of the academic department and President Hadley of the university have taken a hand in the matter. One of the students arrested had been in his room, he claims, and hearing the disturbance, got out of bed, put on his street clothes over his pajamas, and with another student, was expostulating with the students for not moving along faster, when the officers took One Student Clubbed Over Head.

The football players were not in the crowd, as they had gone to Meriden. Spencer Not Likely to Testify.

Spencer himself will not be called as a witness "unless it becomes abso-intely necessary," one of his counsel said tonight, adding that it has not yet been decided whether or not to call the defendant's wife.

Trial May Last All Week. District Attorney Callahan would not divulge 'origat the names of the witnesses to be called by the state in rebuttal, but indicated that at least in rebuttal, but indicated that at least twenty would be put on the stand to refute the evidence as to Spencer's menta! capacity. The taking of testimony, he said, would probably consume the greater part, if not all, of the coming week. The defense is expected to conclude Tuesday night or Wednesday.

Jurors Attend Church. Spencer passed a quiet day today, going through the usual jail routine, while the jurors went to church and indulged in a little outdoor exercise.

Attacks Ordered by Premier.

It is reported tonight that the pr It is reported tonight that the premier has ordered a renewed attack upon Han-Yang and Wu-Chang. If this is true, it signifies his choice. The government has succeeded in ridding the Lancau troops of both revolutionary generals, Chang Shao-Tseng and Lan Tien-Wei. The former is now at Tien-Tsin. The latter, who commanded the third division, has been dismissed and is proceeding southward, not as Yuan Shi Kaf's envoy, to submit further proposals to General Lithe rebel commander, as previously reported, but to join the rebel forces.

Americane Leave Nanking.

There has been an unexpected display of patriotism during the last day or two. Instead of rivalry among the provinces there have been evidences of remarkable unanimity in an effort to establish a union government quickly to prevent the dangers from foreign complications. Rear Admiral Murdock telegraphs the American legation from Nanking that the American consul with the archives is aboard the New Orieans and that all Americans have left the city with the exception of a few members of the Red Cross. It would be impossible, says the admiral to protect American property in Nanking without landing 300 marines prepared to sustain a siege. For this reason he had sent none of his men ashore.

Ministration.

Yuan's Power Waning.

The local organizations generally are preserving order. Shanghai is the center of business for the entire Yangtse valley, which is stagnant while the military operations around Wu Chang and Nanking are proceeding. The situation at Peking has little influence on the rest of the country. The power of Yuan Shi Kai's name is waning, because it is believed that he deserted the cause of the people.

Provinces Organiza Saparataly.

Provinces Organizs Separately.

The provinces which have declared independence are organizing separate governments, but each refuses recognition to the responsibilities incurred by the central government. Nanking the auclent capital, is still firmly in the pessession of the imperialists: therefore the asertion of southern supremacy is not taken seriously. Even the reformers recognize the importance of Nanking, and both they and the imperialists are directing all their efforts at this important center, where victory may mean either the end of the Manchu dynasty or a serious setback to the revolutionary cause.

Fall of Nanking Important.

Fall of Nanking Important.

The reformers do not conceal the tremendous strain, as well as demands, upon their financial resources, in conducting the campaign against Nanking and maintaining their position at Wu Chang. The fall of Nanking will possibly mark the commencement of the final act of the drama, but even then entire unity may be impossible.
